Declarations

To be listed on our Find a Therapist page, counsellors must be accredited or registered by BACP or UKCP and have no outstanding complaints against them.

- Are you currently an accredited/registered member of BACP/UKCP? YES/NO

Please give your registration no.

Please append a copy of your confirmation of current accreditation/registration.

- Do you have professional indemnity insurance to cover your work? YES/NO

Please append a copy of your current certificate.

- Is there currently, or has there ever been, a formal complaint made against you by any relevant professional body? YES/NO

If yes, please provide a copy of the details of the complaint and, where relevant, its outcome.

Theological education, ministerial formation, spiritual direction training or faith affiliation.

To be listed here you will be comfortable to describe yourself as a 'Pastoral Counsellor' because:

- you have trained on a designated pastoral counselling course
- AND/OR you have trained on a secular counselling course and undertaken ministerial formation, theological education or training in spiritual direction
- AND/OR you have trained on a secular counselling course and are currently a member of a Christian faith community and are therefore conversant with the issues which may arise in that context.

Please state below which one or more of these categories applies to you.
